NAADAC, the Association for Addiction Professionals, is pleased to announce its 2014 annual conference in Seattle, Washington, from September 27–October 1 at the DoubleTree Hotel Seattle Airport.

Situated on the shore of Puget Sound between two incredible mountain ranges, SEATTLE is surrounded by stunning natural beauty. From software, to jet engines to espresso and grunge rock, Seattle has always inspired world-changing ideas. As one of the most welcoming and hospitable places in the country, it is a perfect place to EARN YOUR EDUCATION CREDITS and learn from the profession's thought leaders.

As a part of the conference, you'll be able to TOUR PIKE PLACE MARKET—the oldest continually operating farmers' market in the United States. Founded in 1907, Seattle's downtown public market offers fresh produce, unique foods and handmade arts and crafts, overlooking the Elliott Bay waterfront.

NAADAC will offer THREE DAYS OF EDUCATION, PLUS PRE-CONFERENCES that will provide an in-depth focus on the issues that impact on professionals. At the same time, you'll find all the best advantages of a big city—fabulous restaurants, active nightlife, world-class shopping, professional sports, a robust economy and plenty of activities for any preference.
